The International Convention for the Protection of Persons against Enforced Disappearance (ICPPED) entered into force on January 22, 2010, after the twentieth ratification by Iraq. The CFDA has participated actively in working group sessions. The act of the International Coalition for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance (ICPPED) is defined in legally restricting wording and involving the State's obligation to respect and ensure the protection of all persons from any practice of enforced disappearance. The Special Rapporteur on Violence against Women (WGEID) and the Committee on Enforced Disappearances (CNCPPDH) are the major intergovernmental bodies that monitor enforcement and promote the rights of victims. The CFDA had participated in the meetings organized by the WGEID in October 2009 and in November 2010 in Paris, by the CNCPPDH in December 2010 in Paris and by the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights (ACHPR) in August 2010.

A week on enforced disappearances in Paris

The French National Committee for the Protection of Human Rights (CFDA) organized on 10-11-12, in Paris a week on enforced disappearances. This training session was supported by the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The aim of this training session was to sensitize the public to the phenomenon of enforced disappearances and to raise awareness of the ICPPED in its commitment to ratify the UN Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR). Under the slogan, “The Declaration of Human Rights: 60 years of respect for all” 100 participants were encouraged to meet all Algerian As - sociations of Families of the Disappeared (AFDH). They were invited to visit families of the disappeared from all regions of Algeria, in particular, those of the Haratif, Ghardaia, Blida, Constantine, Tizi Ouzou, Tipasa, Ouargla, and Constantine. The Special Rapporteur on Violence against Women (WGEID) and the Committee on Enforced Disappearances (CNCPPDH) are the major intergovernmental bodies that monitor enforcement and promote the rights of victims. The CFDA had participated in the meetings organized by the WGEID in October 2009 and in November 2010 in Paris, by the CNCPPDH in December 2010 in Paris and by the African Commission on Human and Peoples’ Rights (ACHPR) in August 2010.

The ICPPED is not respected in States A

The ACHPR decided on December 4, 2010, by Resolution 043-012, to adopt a Protocol on the issue of the 1975-1999 period and the Convention on the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance (ICPPED). The ECOWAS countries, as States A, have to ratify the ICPPED and then implement it. The ‘Protocol on the 1975-1999 period’ requires States A to join to the ICPPED and then implement it. The ECOWAS countries as States A have to ratify the ICPPED and then implement it. The “Protocol on the 1975-1999 period” states that States A have to join to the ICPPED and then implement it. The ECOWAS countries as States A have to ratify the ICPPED and then implement it. The “Protocol on the 1975-1999 period” states that States A have to join to the ICPPED and then implement it. The ECOWAS countries as States A have to ratify the ICPPED and then implement it. The “Protocol on the 1975-1999 period” states that States A have to join to the ICPPED and then implement it.

The ICPPED is not respected in States A

The ACHPR decided on December 4, 2010, by Resolution 043-012, to adopt a Protocol on the issue of the 1975-1999 period and the Convention on the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance (ICPPED). The ECOWAS countries, as States A, have to ratify the ICPPED and then implement it. The ‘Protocol on the 1975-1999 period’ requires States A to join to the ICPPED and then implement it. The ECOWAS countries as States A have to ratify the ICPPED and then implement it. The ‘Protocol on the 1975-1999 period’ requires States A to join to the ICPPED and then implement it. The ECOWAS countries as States A have to ratify the ICPPED and then implement it. The ‘Protocol on the 1975-1999 period’ requires States A to join to the ICPPED and then implement it. The ECOWAS countries as States A have to ratify the ICPPED and then implement it.