A letter to the European Parliament after the death of Nassera Dutour in Algeria

The first meeting of the Sub-Committee for Political dialogue, Foreign Affairs, Human Rights and Security Policy of the EU and the Parliament of the Maghreb. The objective of the meeting was to discuss the situation of the human rights defenders in Algeria, plans for reforms, the expectations of civil society and also, European support for Algerian human rights defenders. The subject of discussion was the present situation in Algeria, particularly emphasized in these presentations the need to question the policies of national reconciliation and the harassment of families who refuse to make a decision to sign or to support this declaration. Widespread awareness of the issue of impunity calling on everybody who is interested to support this initiative. Nassera Dutour will be invited to the October 8th 2011 (Credits – Hacene Ferhani) to discuss the follow-up of this declaration. Nassera Dutour receive the Oscar Romero Human Rights Award on 13 November 2011 in the Office of SOS Disparus.

March anniversary of ACHPR

European support for Algerian human rights defenders. The CFDA at the Festival Voices of Women in Paris. European human rights defenders from the European Parliament visited the CFDA at the Festival Voices of Women in Paris. On the penultimate evening of the festival, Nassera Dutour, a militant woman who represented thousands who were struggling against disappearance and whose son was taken away by the French military in 1997, to establish the Truth and Justice concerning the fate of their sons. Nassera Dutour receive the Oscar Romero Award.

March anniversary of ACHPR

The European Parliament invited Nassera Dutour to participate in a conference on transitional justice which was taking place in Cairo on 31 October 2011. Nassera Dutour was also invited to the NGO forum in the ACHPR session held in November in the month of November. Nassera Dutour was invited to participate in the Euro-Mediterranean Human Rights Network (ACHPR) session which was held in the last week of September. Nassera Dutour was invited to participate in the “Group with specific interest in the rights of women and children” at the NGO forum in the ACHPR session held in November in the month of November. Nassera Dutour was invited to participate in the “Group with specific interest in the rights of women and children” at the NGO forum in the ACHPR session held in November in the month of November.

March anniversary of ACHPR

The President of the ACHPR invited Nassera Dutour to participate in a conference on transitional justice which was taking place in Cairo on 31 October 2011. Nassera Dutour was also invited to the second meeting of the Conference. Nassera Dutour was invited to participate in the Euro-Mediterranean Human Rights Network (ACHPR) session which was held in the last week of September. Nassera Dutour was invited to participate in the “Group with specific interest in the rights of women and children” at the NGO forum in the ACHPR session held in November in the month of November. Nassera Dutour was invited to participate in the “Group with specific interest in the rights of women and children” at the NGO forum in the ACHPR session held in November in the month of November.

March anniversary of ACHPR

The European Parliament invited Nassera Dutour to participate in a conference on transitional justice which was taking place in Cairo on 31 October 2011. Nassera Dutour was also invited to the NGO forum in the ACHPR session held in November in the month of November. Nassera Dutour was invited to participate in the “Group with specific interest in the rights of women and children” at the NGO forum in the ACHPR session held in November in the month of November. Nassera Dutour was invited to participate in the “Group with specific interest in the rights of women and children” at the NGO forum in the ACHPR session held in November in the month of November.